

Collage for the Soul: Grief and Loss

A Collaboration between Creative Edge, Bread of Life and Seasons Hospice & Palliative Care

Collage is an artistic way to explore the themes of your life. With a focus on grief and loss, we lean on our intuition and let our words get out of the way to make visual space for our feelings and experiences. We will work in silence to support creativity and end our gathering with time for positive sharing. There is no charge for this session.

*No art experience needed; open to all.
